“ My dear friend, Kim, who I have known for almost 50 years, has completed the last chapter of her life. So many memories have been playing in my mind over the past week! She lived 2 doors down from me with her brother, Jeff, when I was around 16 years old. We shared good times and bad times, wept at funerals together, and celebrated births of new life, attended many weddings and the joining together of two friends lives, and suffered through those marriages that ended with divorce... We "lost" each other for about 5 years, and didn't know where each other were, but thanks to Kim sending me a birthday card, we reconnected! Never lost each other again. I called her "Crazy Kim", because she could ramble on and on, and I couldn't get a word in edgewise. Anyone who knew her knows what I mean! It was just the way her mind clicked - 100 miles an hour. She loved animals, and always had a pet, be it dogs or cats. I often joked with her that she was like a cat, and had 9 lives, coming so close to losing her life to battling cancer, or the many car accidents she survived, or making not-so-wise decisions. My life was blessed with her friendship, and will not be the same without her in it.

I am sharing a few photos that she had on Facebook, since there isn't one shown. We spent my birthday together this year in Ruidoso, and I'm sharing one of our photos together. The tiara I'm wearing was the same one I gave her on her birthday last year, and she returned it to me! She had such a kind and caring heart, and really made me feel special. I loved her like a sister, and my heart is missing a big chunk now that she is gone. May she finally be at peace...

She sure did love you Anna & I took some pics of her the day she received your birthday flowers. We never heard a knock at the door or anything but for whatever reason Kim had went outside and she seen the flowers just sitting there she said to me, did you do this? I started laughing and said well I would love to take the credit but no it wasn't me 🙄 and then once she realized who they were from she was beaming ear to ear & then in true Kim fashion she went from that to mad at whoever delivered them that way, because it was hot out no phone call no knocking hard on the door no nothing so after she got in a few choice words in 🤔😏 She instantly went right back to beaming from ear to ear. And then she let me take some pictures of her 💜 I will send them to you. ~Tanya~

I just found out about Kim tonight. My daughter-Kristy Ferguson, her son-Jake, and I will be remembering her for a long time to come. We all thought a lot of Kim, and may she now rest in peace. She was a true friend to us, and we will most surely miss her. Jan McCall & Family

Oh wow, I just now seen her name in the obits, I was looking for another friends name and I ran into hers, I am so freaking out, yes I called her "crazy Kim" too, I couldn't keep up with 80% of her conversations either, she was cool with a big heart, fly high with the angles my friend,
