

Larry A. Williams

December 24, 1947 - March 9, 2024

On December 24th, 1947, Larry Williams was born to Mack and Esther Williams in Grandview, TX. He attended Goddard High School, where he graduated in 1968. He married Shirley Boyce on December 12th, 1969 in Roswell, NM. He was a member of Church of Christ. He loved talking to his family, listening to music, and helping the family out with their fire sticks. Prior to retirement, Larry, worked as a Jeweler at Huffs Jewelry Store for 25 years. Throughout his life, Larry, loved to play music for the kids and watch them dance. He loved to cook everything, from enchiladas to BBQ. He was amazing with technology and could fix any technical problem anyone in the family had. Larry was always the person anyone could call for anything. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Laura Riddle; his parents Mack and Esther Williams; his brothers Clifton Williams, Ben Williams, George Williams, Jack (Tracey) Williams; his sisters, Rosie Lee Reese, Ida Mae Williams, Zula Mae Ross, and Lula Marie Byrd.

Larry leaves behind to cherish his memory: His wife; Shirley Williams of Roswell, his daughter; Aimee Williams of Roswell, his sisters; Melvina Faulkner of Roswell, Betty Jo Byrd of Oklahoma City, granddaughters; Chantale Riddle of Roswell, Deja Riddle of Roswell, Keaumee Griffin of Roswell, Lyric Quarles of Fayetteville, Karisma Quarles of Roswell, great-grandkids; Malachi Oaxaca of Roswell, and Anaylah Gillies of Roswell; and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
