

Lawrence Boyd

April 22, 1947 - October 31, 2011

Lawrence Nelson Boyd, 64 of Dexter passed away Monday, October 31, 2011 at home.

He was welcomed to the world on April 22, 1947 in Ponomo, California to Don and Millie (Miltenbuger) Boyd. Lawrence married Rose Marie Rodich in January 1988. He served his country proudly in the Vietnam War as a Tech Sergeant in the United States Air Force. After retiring from the Air Force, Lawrence pursued his passion and went to work as a cook. His favorite pastimes were going fishing, cooking, and watching baseball. Lawrence was a very dedicated family man and a proud American.

Those left to cherish his memory are wife, Rose Boyd; sons, Lawrence Boyd II and Ivan Casey Boyd; and daughters, Tammera Boyd, Megan Marie Boyd and Cecily Yvette Boyd. Preceding him in death is Susan Brown.

Services for Lawrence Boyd will be held Tuesday, November 8, 2011 at 1:30 pm at the Santa Fe National Cemetery.

“ Rose, We wanted to say how sorry we are to hear that Lawrence (Larry) passed away. He was a very nice man. I can see him sitting out in his lounge chair at station #49. Whenever Randle had to work at the station he would always be willing to help. Everytime I would talk to him I would call him Lawrence and he would be like call me Larry. My dad said that they would talk and he would always talk about you and your animals. He will be missed. Take care and God Bless you and the Family.

“ My father was my hero, who I love and will forever miss. He was a fighter, for god, life, and his country. May he rest in peace, and knock-back a few of his favorite drinks with friends he never knew he had and catch many fish in heaven.
