Please take time to grieve sweetheart, we all do it at a different pace! SO, my very last interaction with Lee, was one Fall afternoon, last year! What an adventure we three went through that day, PICKING UP A FREE SOFA ON FB MARKETPLACE! THAT WAS SOME AFTERNOON! PICKLE JUICE AND ALL! LOL! Well YALL, He's no longer suffering in this cruel, mean world!, Lee really had a big heart and I can say , I'M SURE GLAD I GOT TO KNOW HIM, AS KYE PAULS', LIL BROTHER! RIP, LEE TAYLOR! “ Our family met the Dodson's 25 years ago when we moved to roswell. Kasey Lees sister and our daughter Jacque became and are still best friends. When our Nephew Grant visited for the holidays he enjoyed going to the Dodson home and playing trivia games. Grant thought he was a movie buff and was surprised when Lee knew more movie trivia than he did. Lee had an infectious smile and was a good person who treated everyone well. Bonnie, Vic, Kye, Kasey and Lee's children so sorry for your loss. Rest In Peace Lee The Belding's

“ This one hits me pretty hard. Lee was such an amazing friend. We grew up together through elementary school. I'm fact he taught me how to tie my shoes one night when we had a sleepover in kindergarten. We didn't hang out as much as we got older but we always considered each other friends. It could have been years since I had seen him and without hesitation Lee made sure to come up and hug me with that big grin and ask about my family and kids. He was a genuinely good person. He will be dearly missed. Rest in Paradise my friend.

“ I've known Lee pretty much all my life but we didn't become good friends until high school. We always kept in touch over the years since then. He was always a good friend. I'm so sad for the entire Dodson family. Rest in peace old buddy.

“ Lee always had a huge smile on his face every time we ran into each other around town. When we talked he always wanted to know how my kids were and how much they reminded him of me at that age. Just a jovial and cool guy. My boys got to meet him one day at the shop and hear a few stories of their dad and Lee playing and riding bikes in the ditch by the mall. We kept the stories PG. Lee was one of my buds in the neighborhood growing up and I will miss seeing him around but he will not be forgotten.

“ I worked with Lee for years in the tire shop. Never a dull moment with Lee around. We shared a million laughs. Lee was the only true Jets fans I'll ever know. I remember we'd always go eat catfish and brisket at Rib Crib for lunch. Thank you Lee for volunteering when we were framing my house. Lee could fix, build or put together anything you put in front of him. Thanks for the memories and laughs. Rest easy bud

“ Dear Bonnie, Vic, Kye, and Kasey. I am so sorry for your loss. No words of comfort can help. However, I treasure fond memories of Lee, though he was a bit younger than my crew. I pray that you be comforted by the memories that you created with Lee along those 42 years and by the Lord's loving arms.

“ Lee was born with a big heart and loved everyone. He was always there to help whenever we needed him to. He was a great cook and his armadillo eggs were the best! Our family loved him dearly and will never stop missing him. Kye and Kasey were so blessed to have a brother as special as Lee. The love Lee and Paige had for each other and their children can never be replaced. To Vic and Bonnie, Lee will live forever through our grandchildren, Paden, Logan, and Tatum. We love you Lee!

“ My world became a little bit darker when I saw you had passed. I met at ENMU_R. We hung out, eventually we lost contact, but when we would run into each other we would hug and chat for awhile. I'm going to miss you Lee, you were a good guy.

“ The loss of a child is the greatest tragedy that a parent can suffer. It matters little the age of the child. On a headstone in a small Kentucky grave yard the following words “Earth has no sorrow, Heaven can not heal”.Our hearts and prayers go out to the Dodson family. May time give us a better understanding of tragic human events that tear at the soul of mankind. Tom and Judy Ramage

“ I got into so much trouble with Lee as a kid. We lit fires, stole cigarettes, snuck out of our houses at night and rode bikes all day long laughing the whole time. Great times! We grew apart as the years went on but I'll miss him and that sly smile of his. -Ryan Delamater

“ The Dodson family and our family have been friends for 40 years. I met Bonnie shortly after we moved here from Kansas in 1979. We became great friends almost immediately as we both had young children and we both enjoyed playing bridge. We were in a bridge group together for all of these years. Our families had sons that were a common age in high school so I knew Kye better than I knew Lee Taylor. My memory is of a precious curlyheaded angelic faced child. But even as an adult when I would see Lee at Sam's Club he would give me a big hug and I saw that same angelic smile that he possessed as a young child. As the years went by I saw less and less of Lee but the thing I remember most about him is anytime we would cross paths he would approach me smiling and give me a big hug. I will never forget that. For Bonnie and Vic and Kasey and Kye our sympathies are so deep for the loss of your son and brother. For Lee's children who I didn't really know very well my greatest condolences to them and I will hope they always remember all the wonderful memories they had with him when they were young.
