“ Leroy was a gentle person with a mischievous sense of humor. He loved food, toys, and most of all his music collection. Leroy also loved a good time. He was never more content than when he was at a family event, surrounded by those who loved him best.

Leroy especially loved music. Once at a street fair with his sister Nancy, he disappeared and could not be found. Soon friends and even the police were searching for him. Later he was found at the Bandstand listening to the music he loved.

Leroy was a familiar face at St. John's Catholic Church on Sundays. He leaves behind a large extended family. He was especially close to his nephew Johnny-Gene who says he loved Leroy both as his brother and best friend. I know we will miss Leroy especially at family functions. God bless you, Leroy. We'll meet again someday.
