

Lewis Hendrix

March 11, 1955 - June 24, 2025

Lewis Hendrix, 70, passed away on Tuesday, June 24, 2025. Please share a kind thought or memory with Lewis' family at www.andersonbethany.com.

Graveside services will be held on Wednesday, July 2, 2025, at 1:00 PM at Woodbine Cemetery, located at 201 East Hermosa Drive, in Artesia, New Mexico.

Lewis was born on March 11, 1955, in Artesia, New Mexico, to Lewis Hendrix and Elmeta Welch. Lewis was a hard worker, spending his years working in the oil field industry and then the commercial construction industry as a roofer. He was a vibrant soul with a heart full of rhythm, he will be remembered for his love of life's simple joys—laughing with friends, cherishing moments with family, and filling every room with the sounds of old school rock and roll. Lewis' voice, always ready to sing along, now echoes in the hearts of those who loved him.

Those left to treasure the old rock and roll songs and memories of Lewis are his children, Queena Sanford and Lewis Hendrix Jr and wife Jill; grandchildren, Elexus Jankowski, Aryanna Sanford, and Lily Hendrix; siblings, Carleta Freeman and husband Greg Doty, Carl Freeman, Kendale Hendrix and wife Johnna, and Dana Dean and husband Quentin.

Lewis is preceded in death by his parents, Lewis “Sonny” Hendrix and wife Barbara, and Elmeta McKenzie Welch; grandmother, Melissa Kinnibrugh; and siblings, Carla Freeman and Carlo Freeman.

“ Lewis worked with my late husband. He was a good guy, always willing to help. Seen him a few years ago and he always asked how we were doing and if we needed any help. His smile will be missed. My thoughts and prayers to his family.

“ Lewis was my first hire when i started my Roofing Company in 2002 . Lewis was a hard worker and very dependable, I really enjoyed all the stories about his life and can still remember his contagious laugh,! He rode a bicycle everywhere he went back then and would find the coolest things on the streets.He was a good Ole boy that had lived a pretty hard life . May he Rest in Peace
