On November 10, 1941, Lilly was born to Jose Benito Hernandez and Maria Murillo in Delicias, Chihuahua, Mexico. She was loved by many people. Lilly was outgoing and always ready to go wherever you invited her. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, especially her grandkids, whom she loved dearly. Lilly would always receive you with coffee and pan dulce, so you would never go hungry. The outdoors was Lilly's main entertaining thing to do. She enjoyed camping, fishing, and going to Ruidoso. Lilly liked going to Carlsbad to visit all her relatives, and always had to take a box of food for the trip. Most of all, she enjoyed spending her time going to different places, traveling and enjoying life with her son, Hilario Juarez (Lalie).

Lilly was always happy and loved listening to music and spending time with her friend, Rosa. Everyone that would see Lilly driving down the street would see her with a smile and listening to her loud music. She loved to dance, sing, and looking pretty at all times. Lilly loved all her grandkids, but there was one, in particular, her nine-year-old granddaughter, Corina Juarez, that was very attached to her and would accompanied her everywhere she went. She will be deeply missed by many, especially by those who had the honor to call her mom and grandma.
