“ *Mom I was sitting here reading some old cards we wrote to each other and I found one that really made me cry! It says My one and only Andrea I wanted to tell you how much you mean to me. You are my daughter,my family, my friend,my confidant and my partner in crime and my life. All my love Mom
Mom I miss you so very much,I'm finding it hard to go on not seeing you or having you there to talk to!! My heart is broke!! I love you your daughter Andrea*
