“ My dear friend Lisa, how I will miss you. The one I could confide in, the one who was always there, the one who always understood, the times we laughed, the times we cried, and the times we complained. You will truly be missed. Always. May God be there for your sweet Brianna and her babies. May they remember to call on me if ever I'm needed. Holly Lovell

“ Mom, I'm missing you more every day. I miss just talking ,laughing with you,drinking coffee, going to bingo, I just miss YOU. You meant so much to me and Jonah and I know you knew that. I'm gonna see you again one day, I just have to. I love you mom and Jonah loves you grandma. Our lives are never going to be the same without you. I need you to guide me in the right path of who I'm supposed to be now. Thank you for everything you've ever done for me it meant the world. Until I see you again, I love you.
