“ Virginia, thinking about you today. Just heard about Lloyd's death today. Johnette, called me and told us. I told Starlia this afternoon about Lloyd. But if you remember she never called him that, he was "My Buddie". I know you will miss him. We will be praying for you and the family. Edwinna and Starlia

“ Virginia and family, You've been on our minds all day as we reflect on our association with Lloyd since school days in Kermit. He was very popular, kind and thoughtful..liked by everyone. I ask Doug to pull out his KHS 1948 annual so could reminisce. The memory I was reaching for was the full page photo of Lloyd where he was elected by his peers as the favorite from all the High School. If you have access to that annual, take a look! You'll find a picture of a most handsome young man...Lloyd Hubbard..friend to all. He will be missed. Mildred (Tuxhorn) Bradham and Doug Bradham

“ When Tomorrow Starts Without Me... When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see; If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too; But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an Angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand, and said my place was ready, in heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.

But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne,

He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you". Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last, and since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
