“ Just know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. There is a poem about a weaving (our lives) with God as the weaver. We can only see the back side now. We see only the mistakes (the hard times). But someday we'll be able to see the front side, the beauty that God will have made out of our 'hard times' I know you don't understand why this has happened. But someday God will make it visible to us all. And it will be beautiful!
Much love to you all.
