

Lonnie M. Lee

October 18, 1945 - February 8, 2021

Lonnie M. Lee: The Man, The Myth, the Legend - Men wanted to be him and women wanted to be with him. An authentic cowboy most comfortable in some good ol' starched jeans, a well-fitted hat, spurs on his boots, and sitting snug in a saddle. Most would agree that his presence was larger than life, so it shook us to the core when he was taken from us unexpectedly by the COVID virus and other complications on February 8, 2021.

Lonnie was a dedicated, loving, and loyal son, brother, father and friend to many. While his parting was a sad day for us all, especially his two surviving daughters - Lydia Lee and D'Anna

O'Mera, we rejoice in knowing he was greeted at the pearly gates by his Lord and Savior, his mother - Noemi Shelton, and his two deceased sons, Brion and Zackary Lee.

Foreseeing the day he would leave us, he had this to say, "Now y'all don't be crying when I'm gone, I lived a good life. If you want, you can get together to tell a few stories and have a good laugh, but I don't want a bunch of tears...ya hear." So in honor of his wishes we invite anyone who knew our dad to join us for a graveside service this Friday, May 28th at 10:00 a.m. and a celebration of this cowboy's amazing life will immediately follow at his home 1701 E. Alameda.

Lonnie's is services are being arranged through Anderson Bethany Funeral Home.

Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Lonnie's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

Lonnie's tribute was written in his honor by his family.

“ No words, Lonnie didn't want anyone to grieve for him, just asked for us, all to stay as a family through a party, we fought, wrestled in the bushes, so many times, teachers come in all shape and sizes, I'll tell you, one thing, and everyone has an opinion, I have never meet, a more stubborn man, in all my life, Still remember the look on his face, the smile that followed. I saw my brothers eyes, so many times, just the other day. No words.
