Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little – but not too long and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared Miss me - But let me go. For this journey that we all must take and each must go alone, It's all a part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me – But Let Me Go...

“ I am Eddie Duran's sister and Lonnie and Eddie spent alot of time together at the car lot. They would tell each other whoever died 1st the other would save a place for him in heaven. After Eddie passed Lonnie would say "he was ready to go cause he knew Eddie would be waiting for him". I have only seen him a few times since and I ask him do you remember me and he would always have a story about my brother. My thoughts and prayers are with Lonnie and his family. May your memories and God's blessings support you forever! Corinne

“ I was Lonnie's plumbers' helper out at Walker in the early 70's. Some plumbers aren't too easy to work for, especially if you are a helper. Lonnie was funny, fair and a good teacher. He was also one of the strongest men I ever met.
