

Loraine Browning

February 18, 1923 - January 12, 2011

No services are scheduled for Loraine Browning, 87, of Roswell. She passed away Wednesday, January 12, 2011. Her final resting place will be Santa Fe National Cemetery, with her loving husband of many years, Clyde Browning. Loraine was born on February 18, 1923 to Harry and Ruth Young in New London, Connecticut. She was a retired history teacher, fluent in German, and could also speak Spanish. She did volunteer work, substitute teaching, and loved to read. She was also a judge in Dexter. Those left behind to cherish her memory are her sister Joanna Dickens of Connecticut; her grandchildren: Chris Sanchez, Jonathan Michael Hernandez, Steven Hernandez, Loryanne Hernandez, and Anthony Hernandez all of Roswell; and her great grandchildren Robert Guerin Jr., Nicholas Guerin, Katie Anne Guerin, Katherine Sanchez, Santiago Sanchez, and Albert Sanchez all of Roswell. She was preceded in death by her mother Ruth M. Young, her husband Clyde Browning, and a daughter Katie Hernandez. Please take a moment and share your thoughts and memories with the family in the online register book at andersonbethany.com. Services are under the direction of Anderson Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.

“ I remember Lori and CO the most from the time shortly after they retired from the air force when Katie was young. God bless her family in NM.

“ I would like to offer my condolence and respects. Lorrie was my aunt. We should also remember her service to our country in the US Army.
