“ Gosh where to start first and foremost bro Im gunna def miss u beyond words can describe..when we first met u would hide behind ur door lol and scare me all the time and laugh then u hit some round times and Id always listen weather at the window or on ur speaker u watch many tears fall asleep I did for u as well always told u weather inside or on the outside I got u bro you were so mad when I moved u said I left u .and we weren't friends for 2 mins lol every time u FaceTimed so we would try not to giggle as we watched the time pass then out loud hi buddy hahahah or hi loser hahaha gosh I was so excited n proud when I found out u got out being able to hug u for the first time since our bond started we both cried at the gas station that day then u made me take a shot with u as u laughed because I almost threw up hahaha spent that whole day just playing music and laughing about old stories the morning u FaceTimed me for the last time gosh bro if life had a pause button it would be the moment u smiled so big telling me about how much u love her and how u were gonna show her and ur baby and how u said u were gunna bring u n ur fam to ks. To visit and thanking me for always having ur back on the inside and never not answering a single call or text on the outside and being u and a few of ur guys voice when no one would hear..I'm still waiting tho fam that call bk in 15mins. I'll push pause until then love u always u will forever live on in mine and so many others hearts love u little brother always xoxoxo

“ *Louie Louie ,
Thinking of you. I've known you from birth . The time passed quickly
. We had a chance to pray 🙏 together just the other day . As we spoke of our Love for Jesus. 🌹 ✨ We cried together for My Dear Maya. Now you and her are together in the Arms of Jesus . Where only Love and Peace surround forevermore. I shall imagine you and Mayita working for Jesus. Along with Dear Christina your Mama .
God be with your Family always. The sadness will never leave.
Cause you and Maya left too soon. Only God can help us through.*

“ *My sweetest cousin..
"Say not in grief that he is no more but LIVE in the thankfulness that he was. Grief is the price we pay for love, for death is no more than a turning of us over from time to eternity." I love you always Louie!
This is not goodbye, see you later. #restnow*
