

Luzelda Gomez Morales

November 18, 1957 - January 7, 2021

LUZELDA GOMEZ MORALES, 63, passed away on Thursday, January 7, 2021, in Hagerman, New Mexico. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with Luzelda's family at www.andersonbethany.com.

SERVICES: There will be a Viewing for Luzelda at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home on Wednesday, January 13, 2021, from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM. A Funeral Mass Service for Luzelda will be held at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home on Thursday, January 14, 2021, at 1:00 PM. Interment will follow at Hagerman Cemetery.

On November 18, 1957, Luzelda was born to Merardo and Dominga Gomez in El Mulato, Chihuahua, Mexico. She graduated from Hagerman High School. Luzelda loved to celebrate her family and support their endeavors. She attended birthday parties, school celebrations, and followed her kids and grandkids to all sporting events, no matter the distance. Regardless of a special occasion, Luzelda loved having her family together for a meal "just because."

Luzelda's hobbies were efforts focused on her family. Her greatest joys were cooking, doing yard work, and playing games with her grandchildren. Luzelda enjoyed exercising, going on walks with her family, and watching her children and grandchildren play or coach sports. She loved having long conversations with her brothers, sisters, and friends.

The matriarch of her family, Luzelda truly led in love through her words and by example. She is extremely loved by so many and will be greatly missed, but she raised a strong family that will continue her legacy.

SURVIVORS: Luzelda is survived by her husband, Mario Morales; children: Mario Morales Jr. and wife Raquel, Monica Morales, Jacob Morales and wife Hope, and Alex Morales; grandchildren: Ysenia Grado and husband Edgar, Gavyn Quiroz and fiancé Miriam Tarango, Isaac Morales, Javyn Morales, Jayla Morales, Jaxon Morales, Mila Morales, Khaleesi Morales, and Adrian Tarin; great-grandchildren: Briseis Lopez and Aamira Lopez; as well as her siblings: Inez Garcia, Cuca Martinez, Ezequiel Gomez, Jesus Gomez, and Sandra Brown.

PRECEDED: Luzelda is preceded in death by her parents, Merardo and Dominga Gomez; and sisters: Antonia Gomez, Cruzita Gomez, and Hortencia Ramos.

Those honored to serve as Pallbearers are Luzelda's sons: Mario Morales, Jr., Jacob Morales, Alex Morales; and grandsons: Gavyn Quiroz, Isaac Morales, and Javyn Morales.

Those blessed to serve as Honorary Pallbearers are Luzelda's grandson Jaxon Morales and her brothers: Ezequiel Gomez and Jesus Gomez.

Our family has been overwhelmed with love and support from family, friends, and the community during this difficult time. A special "Thank You" for all the prayers, food, and donations. They have all been a blessing.

“ A Letter From Heaven”

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Morales family. I have fond memories of Mario and Luzelda's children in my fourth grade classes and then I enjoyed her camaraderie when she worked as the librarian in the elementary school. As the loving matriarch to a great family, she truly established a solid foundation for you all. May the loving memories your hearts will always hold dear light your paths to peace.

“ I first met Luzelda when she became a student in one of my Home Economics classes. She was very quiet, but would smile. I was surprised when she came to work at the school as the librarian-- quiet works there! Perhaps the last time we saw her, we were at the state track meet where we were all cheering for our teams. We were saddened to read about her passing.
