“ My Daddy was an incredible man who went out of his way to make sure everyone felt at home in his life. He always had so many of us rolling on the floor laughing at all of his smart-ass comments! I value my sense of humor even more now that he is gone. The most important thing to me has always been that he acknowledge his having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and within the last year of his life he made sure to let us know that he had definitely made his peace with the Father and would see us again on the other side. Please feel free to leave your memories of him here and join us tomorrow at 2pm at Christs Church as we celebrate his life together.

“ Uncle Lynn.....nope that wont work, I never called you Lynn, I know it probably drove everyone else nuts....but you were always my uncle bimbo....I miss you already. I love the way you always knew what to say to fix it--fix me...make it all better. It's like we had this connection that was never broken by time or distance....a connection of spirits...sometimes not understood by others, but always by each other...I love you for that. I always will. Love your neice, Kim
