Maddix Bingo Anderson

Born February 06, 2020 • Went into the light on November 1, 2025

Maddix was born on February 16, 2020, to his loving mother Angela Gamboa, who dedicated her life to making sure he was cared for, cherished, and surrounded by love. From the moment he arrived, Maddix was feisty, full of spirits, and able to brighten any room with his presence. He was our hero, our strength, and our constant reminder of resilience.

On Saturday, November 1st, Maddix went into the light. Though his time on earth was short, the impact he made was immeasurable. His spirit, his courage, and his love will remain with us forever. Maddix had a powerful faith in God. He loved going to church, listening closely to everything around him. Even when he could no longer speak, he spoke through his eyes-eyes that were full of wisdom, love and conversation all their own. Although our Maddix could not see today, we know that someone else can see because of him, and his light continues on.

Born medically fragile, Maddix fought for his life every single day with courage and joy. He was always happy, always smiling, gifting us moments that brightened our hardest days. It took a whole team to care for Maddix, and we were blessed beyond measure to have him in our lives.

Maddix is survived by his mothers: Angela Gamboa and Andrea Martinez; brother, Zion Salazar; uncles and aunts: Victoria Jaramillo, Christina and Rene Ornelas, Monica Gamboa and Oscar Silva, Breann Barber and Luis Vasquez, Trinity Salazar, Casino Salazar, Joe Gamboa; cousins: Link Gamboa, Mianda Nanez, Dominique Miller, Elly Salazar, Lexi Nanez, Brycen Sanchez, Jeremy Miller; grandparents: Joe and Priscilla Gamboa, Helen Chavez.

Those blessed to be chosen as pallbearers are Rene Ornelas, Link Gamboa, Miranda Nanez, and Lexi Nanez.

He was our love bug, our sweets, our Maddie Boo Boo, our Sunshine.

Heaven's Garden

God needed one more flower
for His garden bright and fair, so He chose a tiny blossom with a smile beyond compare.

Now Maddix blooms in heaven,
in fields of holy light,
where Jesus tends the children and makes all broken things right.

“ You came into my life at 6 months old my sweets. You were so tiny and I had no idea what I was doing but every morning was this blessing when you and brother got here. And we had many adventures. We are so blessed to have had you for your 5 and a half yrs of life. Now you are with Grandpa and Rebecca who loved you and thought of you on her last breath. Thank you for the confirmation of the light. I know you aren't resting we know you are running in full sight. We hope to look into those beautiful eyes again. If not we will see you when God talks us home. I love you beyond words and understanding.
