“ Manuel thanks for being one cool brother in law. Everyone knows just how much you meant to my sister Angie. Just like everyone knows how much she meant to you. It's sad that she couldn't be there with you for who knows what reasons but she was your first love and your last love. You two had the most beautiful daughter and that nobody can ever change. I know that you two loved each other so much because every time I would go over you two were always happy together.. your always going to be her love until the day she takes her last breath. One thing nobody can take away. Even though she couldn't be there with you on your last days it wasn't her fault and you know that. But one thing everyone knows is that you two loved each other deeply. That's one thing nobody can ever take away from both of you no matter how hard they try that is unbreakable. You rest in peace. Santos respected you so much and he was very hurt to know you were gone. You will never be forgotten. God bless you and dance with the angels. You're sister in law always.
