

Margaret Rose McLaren

January 30, 1941 - July 2, 2014

Margaret Rose McLaren, born January 30, 1941 in London England, passed away July 2, 2014. Known as Margo to all her family and friends travelled the world with her husband James and settled in the USA over 27 years ago becoming a citizen.

Margo's chosen profession was as a secretary, which she enjoyed immensely. Margo lived in many states before settling here in Roswell in 2004. She became a valued and good friend to many in the Road Runner Pack, where she eventually laid her roots, and spent many happy years. She will be sadly missed by all, especially her niece Kim, whom thought of her as a mother.

Margo is at peace in heaven reunited with her beloved James.

“ Margo was a true joy to be around. She was always kind and showed a caring for everyone. I will miss our short visits and our laughs about our dogs. Everyone here will miss her very much. I extend my sincere sympathy to all of her loved ones. Pat Carlton
