“ Another Christmas without you mom. Missing the smells of your cooking tamales, fresh homemade tortillas, and chili so hot it would keep us coughing. Miss the way you would transform the house with beautiful Christmas decorations. But most of all your presence. Dad (Fred) and I speak of you almost every day keeping you close. You were taken away way to soon. Till we see each other again. Muchos besositos mom. Love your babygirl, TJ And thank you to everyone for your beautiful kind words I couldn't bring myself to read any of these till now. None the less "Thank you".

“ Margaret was always so welcoming to me. I realize now how tough that must have been, considering I was ALWAYS at her house,, being loud and eating her delicious food. She was a great mom, and I know how much Fred and all three girls loved her. I'm just so sorry to hear of her passing.
Love,

“ Rest in peace Margaret. I enjoyed interacting with you as an officer of the Court. You were always helpful and knowledgeable regardless of my questions. Please say Hi to Judge Jones for me and I'll probably have more questions for you when I get there. My deepest condolences to the family.

“ Margaret was always so sweet to me when I would come over to visit her grandson, Andrew. She helped cultivate our friendship by allowing me to come over and having him live with her and Fred while he was in high school. I will always be grateful for that. Margaret, with love, you will be missed.
