She was a home maker and always stood by her husband's side. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, who enjoyed cooking, crocheting, camping, and spending time with her family.

We knew that morning God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left behind beautiful memories and though we cannot see you, you are always by our side, our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as God will call us one by one the chain will link again. Amen.

I may have known her for a short time but it was a great pleasure to have known her. I got some great cooking tips from her everytime I seen her. She had a awesome smile that always made me smile.*

May she rest in peace and I know she is happy to be with her husband whom she would talk to me about.
