“ The memory of my second cousin Othni that will always stay with me is of a lively and intelligent three-year old. I never saw him since but in later years I kept up with news of him and his family through his mother. I am very saddened by his passing but will always cherish the memory I have of him.

My God be with the family.

“ No other smile could light up a room like Ot's!!! He was a great man. Our SPS group was like family and I wouldn't be the person I am today without all these great guys I had around me growing up! I miss the days of camping with our crew.

You will be greatly missed Othni! Say hello to my baby for me! Till we meet again....

“ Othni was my brother’s BFF in High School and I had the priviledge of meeting him through my brother. They were the bomb at the Mall dances, invented Milo Koolaide, and probably did a few things we do not know about , that is how best friends roll. Othni was so much fun and so handsome always. Valerie was THE one for him. I have also been blessed to meet the love of Othni’s life and he would look at Valerie with such love in those smiling eyes. I will always remember you, Othni. I am so proud to say I knew you as a very young man and later met up again, as a old married guy. I celebrate your life with sadness as I write, but also with celebration that you are restored in the Lord. Valerie, I pray God be with you and your loving family, supporting each one with strength and the good memories that Othni gave you. Blessings to each family member.

“ As my brother stated he and Othni were best friends in high school. That’s how I meet Ot,
He was a funny guy full on life and a darn good dancer. Lots of young years spent with this man.
I got the privilege of meeting Val after we all put a few years between us. What a wonderful woman God put in his life.
What this life on earth took from you in health Othni. God has now given back to you. We will miss you but rejoice with you in your now heavenly home.

“ Ot was by far the kindest, sweetest man we have had the privilege of sharing time with! Our fondest memories are shared time on the back porch, golfing together in Roswell, Cloudcroft and Buffalo Thunder. He was the very best at our Oklahoma Washer games and loved whipping our butts every chance he got!! If any of us needed help, Ot was always the first person to step up. We will miss his great laugh, his “dance moves” and his friendship. Rest In Peace Ot. You are now standing beside the God you loved so much❤️
