Obituary for Martha R. Beltran (1957-2026)

Martha R. Beltran, age 68, passed away on April 30, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Born in Artesia, New Mexico, she grew into a woman known for her kindness, humor, strength, and unmistakable stubbornness — qualities that shaped her life and the lives of everyone who knew her.

Martha devoted her life to her family. She found her greatest joy in simply being with the people she loved, whether sharing stories, laughing together, or spending quiet moments side by side. Her presence was steady, warm, and full of heart.

She is survived by her husband, Carlos Beltran, and her children: Gabriel Beltran, Lorena Beltran, and J. Carlos Beltran. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Gabriel Beltran Jr., Daniel Beltran, Brandon Beltran, Michael Beltran, Jorge Beltran, Christopher Beltran, Mia Beltran, and Briella Beltran; and her great grandchildren, CJ Beltran, Monique Beltran and Vinny Beltran. Martha is further survived by her sisters, Lupe Chacon and Gloria Ruiz, both of Artesia, New Mexico, brother Freddie Ruiz of Albuquerque, New Mexico along with numerous nieces and nephews who loved her dearly.

She is preceded in death by her grandchildren Meriah Beltran and Jonathan Beltran; her siblings Alfredo Ruiz and Emilia Ruiz; and her parents, Teresa Ruiz and Victor Ruiz.

Honorary Pallbearers are Carlos Beltran, Gabriel Beltran, and J. Carlos Beltran. Pallbearers are Gabriel Beltran Jr., Daniel Beltran, Brandon Beltran, and Michael Beltran.

They will forever remember her as a guiding force — strong, loving, and unwavering. Her legacy lives on in the memories she created the lessons she taught, and the love she gave so freely.
