

Martha Jane Flemons

September 17, 1935 - March 30, 2025

Martha Jane Flemons passed away on March 30, 2025, in Roswell, New Mexico. Please take a moment and share a kind thought or memory with her family at <http://www.andersonbethany.com>.

Funeral Services will be held at the gravesite at the Lovington Cemetery, 600 E Gum, on Saturday April 12 at 1 PM, in Lovington, New Mexico.

On September 17, 1935, Martha Jane (Burnett) Flemons was born to R.C. and Lillie Mae Burnett in Bailey, TX. She attended Amarillo High School and West Texas State University became a school teacher after graduation. She married James G. Flemons on December 23, 1962, in Amarillo. She was a musician and a school teacher, but more than anything a follower of Jesus Christ who devoted her life to loving her husband and sons and making a home for them. She filled their home with music and laughter, shining the light of Christ in our home and hearts.

Those that survive and cherish her memory are her husband, James Flemons; her sons John and Jerry along with their wives Lesa and Danna; grandchildren Parker Grant Flemons and his wife Lizzy, Ainsley Faith Flemons, and Hailey Nicole Flemons; great granddaughter Amelia Jane Flemons; sisters Mildred King and Vada Bishop.

She was preceded in death by her father R.C. Burnett and mother Lillie Mae (Davis) Burnett.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

APR 12. 1:00 PM (MT)

Lovington Cemetery
600 E. Gum Avenue
Lovington , NM 88260

Tribute Wall

“ A Memorial Tree was planted in honor of Martha Jane Flemons.

April 07, 2025 at 11:22 AM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Martha Jane Flemons.

April 07, 2025 at 11:22 AM

“ Mildred King & Vada Bishop purchased the Two Tone Dark Red Rose with White Mum (Silk Cemetery Flowers) for the family of Martha Jane Flemons.

Mildred King & Vada Bishop - April 02, 2025 at 08:19 PM