I MADE IT HOME

I just wanted to let you know that I made it home.

Everything is so pretty here,
so white, so fresh and new.
I wish that you could close your eyes
and that you could see it too.
Please try not to be sad for me.
Try to understand God is taking care of me...
I'm in the shelter of His hands.

Here there is no sadness, no sorrow, and no pain.
Here there is no crying and I'll never hurt again.
Here it is so peaceful when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now...
I've just got to try my wings.

Ps...I'll be the first face you see when you get here!

“ My BEST friend! There will never be another. We met as kids and grew up making unforgettable memories. We seemingly became a part of each other's families. I grew up, got married and moved away and unfortunately I didn't do enough to keep our friendship going strong. You always think you have plenty of time to get around to those things in life but sometimes tragedies hit and the opportunity is lost forever. Nevertheless I'll always keep my BeST friend and all those special memories we made together in my heart forever. Until we meet again "Tin" Rest Peacefully!!

“ *Dear Friend,
I will never forget you and I am Thankful to you for those school days when you had my back from bullies, you were a Blessing to have a s friend. When we would run into each other at Farmers you already had a smile and would say Hi!
I will send prayers of love and peace to your family during this difficult time. Spread your wings my friend in Gods Kingdom.
Forever your friend Claudia*

“ I still can't believe it, going back to visit when I'm Roswell will most definitely not be the same. You always said you would bring your family to Dallas and visit, I'm sorry that you never made it- You're in a much better place. I'm glad I had the change to know you and your family all these years. ❤️
