

Mary Horn Olguin

August 9, 1948 - May 2, 2009

Memorial services for Mary "Kathy" Horn Olguin, 60, of Roswell, will be held Friday, May 8, 2009 at 10:30 am, at Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home Chapel, with Chaplain Cecil Kimberlin of Vista Care Hospice officiating. Mary passed away Saturday, May 2, 2009 at her home.

Mary was born on August 9, 1948 to George and Virginia Brock in Los Angeles, CA. She and Henry Olguin were married September 22, 2001 in Torrance, CA; Henry survives Mary at the family home. Before relocating to Roswell, while living in Los Angeles she worked with the children at the YMCA and loved it very much. While living here in Roswell, she worked for High Desert Home Health as a caregiver in the beginning and worked her way into an office position. Mary was a loving wife and mother, who was always family oriented. She was always a giving person, not only to her family but also to the animals at the Roswell Humane Society.

In addition to her husband, Henry, Mary is survived by her son; Robert Rollins of Roswell, two brothers; Christopher Brock of Santa Barbara, CA and Dr. Thomas Brock and his wife Carol of Cerritos, CA, two nieces; Jennifer Browder and her husband Dustin and their son Ethan of Rancho Santa Margarita, and Julie Brunitt and her husband Jeremy of Germany, three grandchildren; John Thomas and Becca Michelle Rollins of Albuquerque, and Lacey Nicole Rollins of Roswell, her adopted family which includes Kirby Moore Sr., Joe Galvan and a host of friends. Mary was preceded in death by her parents.
