“ Your message

One of the best persons in this world and none with a bigger heart. Yes she was difficult at times but it was only in love and those who didn't understand her never tried to understand her. They missed the light, love, care she offered freely. I never saw a child in her house family or not that went without anything. Needed food she fed them, clothes, she made them, love was her actions not always her words. I am forever grateful I had my best times as a child and as an adult with my grandmother.

Patricia, my condolences. Grandma was an amazing, bull headed woman. Please get ahold of me and I will share pictures.

“ My grandmother Mary Jane, was the most loving, caring, spitfire of a woman. Thanks for intrusting me to not only be your granddaughter but your caregiver. It has since been 12 days without you. The house & world will never be the same. Grandma was surrounded by those whom loved her dearly both physically and spiritually. She left behind so much love and such a legacy. Am blessed & extremely grateful not only to share life, time, and adventures with the 1 woman that continues to hold a huge place in my heart. Gone but never forgotten Grandma.
Those claiming to be family, 1 question why no calls, texts, or visits? A person's obit is most definitely not a place for this sort of negativity. This family is obviously huge, she most definitely loved all of her family without a doubt. Can we please stop with this negativity? For this is not what Grandma would want from any of her family.
We love and miss you a ton Grandma!
Prayers for the family as we all grieve a wonderful woman.

“ Please stop with the negative comments. My wife and I did the best we could with very little information. Before you comment you can call me at 5753173561 so we can figure it out. If not just ask yourselves where the Hell was you during her last few years.

“ Who put this BS together? Cause there are a whole lot of people missing from it. Let's see the only grandfather on that side of my family I ever cared to know. My favorite Uncle and All of my Cuz'ns. Not to mention all of the great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. Whoever put this together seems to forget who made her great life possible. Why can't people tell the truth about people?

“ Any such family member that has concerns or questions regarding something as simple as an obituary should get with the appropriate family member who was taking care and by the side of my beautiful great grandmother. My mom (molly) and my dad (bryant dunlap) took care of great grandma for her last year and a half. Her daughter jane (my grandma) refused to offer help or give any information during and after. So out of respect they did their best please dont post or argue on here for this is not the place. Kindly private message or call for questions answered.

“ It would have been nice if someone contacted Bud Morehouse's children and grandchildren. After all, my grandfather made sure Jane and her family had a good life!!

My many years of knowing her and of her....she was a mean and spiteful woman. No mention of her late husband Bud Morehouse or her step son and grandchildren

Marilyn Phillips - March 06, 2020 at 02:57 PM

My deepest apologies that her obit was so vague. So, many holes due to the lack of information. Was definitely not our intention to leave out anyone or uninform anyone.

Thanks for an apology. But her daughter was raised by and took Bud Morehouse's name. He should at least have had a mention
