“ Greg Brewer Max was a wonderful human being, gentle giant. always put family first he would work on your car and fix it, but it's a family needed. Something you were going to have to wait. That's what I admired most about Max . to the family, may you keep your faith and strength and God will see you through I think God needed an old car rewired so why not get the best!

“ Aide,

Max was a truly special brother-in-law. he was someone whose love for his family and also classic cars, especially his 65 Chevelle and his C-10 Chevy truck, he found joy in the rumble of his classic engines. His love for those classics was a character of a strong person that he was. We will always picture him behind the wheel grinning like he owned the road. Max will be missed by all of us. May he rest in peace. We love you Max- forever always in our hearts.
