“ Mays was a good man. I remember when I was about ten years old Mays need some help pulling a windmill in Carlsbad. I guess I was all the help he could find. We pulled that windmill and Mays fixed it. He gave me a check for $12.00 which was a small fortune at that time. I am sure he was overly generous but I never forgot Mays Lane. I remember him being a kind and generous man.

“ *I was classmates and close friends with Sue. I remember when visiting that we did our school homework by kerosene lantern. Mays Lane was always so polite and nice to us. The Jenkins were a much loved family.
My love to Mary Ann and her sons and also to Vesta Jo. God bless each of you.*
