“ Michael I didn't get to meet you like everyone else did, but when I finally did you were an awesome person you still had your sense of humor and made me feel apart of the family, I thank you for that I'll always cherish the little talks we would have when we would just go to hangout at Yalls house with destini and my son, I'll be sure to let my son know of his grandpa, I love you Michael.

“ Gorilla thank you for showing me so much in life and picking up the slack and raising me after my dad passed. You were in my life since I was a little girl you were there through all the preteen teen and young adult and adult years you've seen all my ups and all my downs and you were there for me. You enrolled me into college you help me graduate high school you keep pushing me and because of you I did finish. I remember you knew how disgusted I'd get when you'd have PDA with my mom and you would do it on purpose to Gross me out. I remember the last year of you being healthy we got really close, wed be so bored in the house and id go to the store and be sitting in my car on the side of the house and you'd text me "you forgot me fool". You would play video games with me until 5 in the morning and we'd make a whataburger run. I remember all of our family vacations with all of us kids and you running down the hallways of hotels with my pink luggage acting ridiculous just to make us laugh. You were a dad to me. And it's saddens me that I didn't just lose one I lost two. I love you gorilla!

“ Michael your at last resting comfortably, no pain, no regrets. You fought a good fight with your family at your side and now your whole and pain free. They will miss you dearly this I know for sure. Rosie and Adrian you are both amazing good people. You did what you had to do and now you both may rest a little, always knowing you were there till the end. I love you both so much and am very sorry for your loss. My mom and dad also send their condolences. We were remembering when y'all lived on Cherry St. That was some crazy times but also fun as heck. Rest in Paradise primo, till we meet again.

“ Michael, Michael, Michael.... what a journey! You were an amazing young man and a role model for many as a young, single dad. You embraced life as it was handed to you and fought your way through the worst of times. God carries you now. Your struggles are complete. You are pain free and whole again. Thank you for sharing your life with me. Rest now.....
