Please take a moment to share your thoughts and memories in the online register book at andersonbethany.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Anderson Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.

I Am Free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I am following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, these things I, too, will miss. Be not burdened with time of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow. My Life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one touched. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me. God wanted me now; He set me free.

“ I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and share with you that death isn't the end nor a path to heaven. Jesus demonstrated that when he resurrected Lazarus when he was on earth. John 11 shows when Jesus heard of Lazarus' death, he said: "Lazarus has falling asleep and I'm going to awaken him". Notice that Jesus didn't say: Lazarus went to heaven to be with God. Instead, he said "Lazarus has fallen asleep or has died and I am going to awaken him ". And to demonstrate what he meant, Jesus asked Lazarus' sisters to take him to the grave where they had buried him and when he got there, he called Lazarus, who came out from the grave like he was never dead. What Jesus did then flatly refutes the idea that the dead are in heaven and teaches us that he'll bring them back to life when he rules the earth as King of God's Heavenly Kingdom. (Daniel 7: 13 and 14); (Daniel 2:44) which is what he promises to do in John 5: 28. When that time comes, the following Scriptures highlight some of the things Jesus will do to benefit mankind. Please read them for yourself in your own Bible: (Isaiah 33:24); (Job 33:25); (Psalms 46: 9 and 10); (Isaiah 2: 4); (Psalms 37: 9-11 and 29); (Revelation 21: 3 and 4); (John 5: 28 and 29). “ We share in your grief because losing a child is one of the hardest things a parent will ever go through. We can pray for peace, understanding, and knowing that they are only given to us for a little while till The Lord wants them back. Everything is given to us to borrow for our needs to grow as Christians because it is the Lords. I hope this experience will help you grow closer in the Lord as I know it will. That is why we have so many trials, so we can grow closer and then someday he will miraculously take us home. Yipee what a day! I am sorry we wont be there today but know we are thinking and praying for you and in the days ahead we will be here to listen, a shoulder to cry on, and to continue on in life with so please let us know when we can help. James is waiting for your call. Love you guys

“ Our dear daughter Amanda. It is hard to say a final goodbye to someone you love. Please reflect back on the pictures you have and the memories you hold close to your heart. Be still and breathe deeply and you will feel his gentle touch. He will always be with you as you move forward in life. Michael is now in heaven and resting in peace. We love you.

“ What a wonderful young man Michael was. You raised him well. As you struggle to get through his loss always know that he loved his family and children beyond all words. He spoke so fondly of you. The struggles he could not deal with here on earth are now washed away. He is now in heaven and resting in peace. God bless you all.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to all of Michaels family. I only knew him a short while, but the happiness and love that he brought into my daughter Amanda's life was heart warming. I was proud of that. He was a very respectful, polite and loving man. You could see the love in his childrens eyes by the way they looked at him. I am so sorry for your loss. May God pick you all up in his hands and be with you during these rough times. God Bless You all.
