“ Our family's deepest condolences to yours.
I knew and enjoyed Molly for 63 years as she helped my grandmother, mother and aunt. In a very real sense she was part of the family as she experienced our joys and tragedies through three generations.
If there is meaning in this tragedy, it is that she got to rejoin her heavenly family without having to linger here in an incapacitated state.

“ The Love that was given and shared by this woman that I knew as "Grandmo" was unmistakable and undeniable. To her I was one of her grandbabies, and I loved it! She gave all of herself for love and loved beyond that which was expected. May her journey with her husband in the heavens be as good to them as it was here on earth! With Love Grandmo, Popo.
