“ To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me” When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You musn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be thankful for our beautiful years. I gave to you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown. But now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part. So bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away. For life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, And say, “Welcome home!”

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. May the Lord provide your family with comfort and the strength you need to face this difficult time. He does not give us more than we can handle and it doesn't seem fair, but remember He will not leave your side. Philipians 4:13...I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. “ Throughout the years we have had the honor of watching your children grow up to become amazing young adults. Even though Myranda's life journey wasn't very long-she positively impacted every life she touched. She is greatly loved and will be sorely missed by those of us left behind. We love you all dearly and are grateful to call you our family.
