Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glint on the snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's rush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circle flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there, I did not die.

“ I have known " Nobbie' for many years, There was a older couple that lived NW of town. We would go there after Church, Nobbie and my son, Richard would bike to their home. It was a ways out there. Nobbie was a fun loving person, and loved to tease. He will surely be missed. I did not see Nobbie often, but I remember a couple of years ago when my brother Tino was in town, that is one person Tino wanted to visit; which we did. Nobbie was a very warm person and treated us so nice. He is one person that will be missed.
Sincerely, Inez Green.
