Miss Me -But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared

Miss me - But let me go.

For this journey that we all must take and each must go alone,

It's all a part of the Master's plan a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - But Let Me Go...

“ *Noma's sense of humor and love for her family will forever be a precious memory. Talking about her beautiful grandbabies lit up her beautiful eyes. A vivid memory I have is her ability to make a child laugh, I was about 3-4 years old & she sat me in a chair that spun. She would spin me around & sing "Yo tenía una chiva vieja." I would laugh & laugh. Noma, Jesus, grandma, grandpa, Manuel, Connie, & my precious Lina are rejoicing with you now. Although you'll be missed, we comforted knowing where you are.
Love you, Debbie, Pepe & family*
