“ Olivia was a wonderful and courageous woman who was loved by many. Her generosity was shown by always giving to those who needed her most. Olivia's kind and thoughtful demeanor was present in everything she did. She made such a positive impact to those around her and will never be forgotten. We love you dearly "Sheen" and we know that you are with the angels.

We would like to send our deepest gratitude to Bethany Anderson Funeral Home for taking such great care of Olivia.

"Earth has one angel less, and heaven one more since yesterday. Already, kneeling at the throne, she has received her welcome, and is resting on the bosom of her Saviour." Nathaniel Hawthorne
