“Afterglow”

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

“ It just wasn't your time Homie.. Meeting and hanging out with You, and others at Goddard, were the best times of my life. For being in a small, but tuff town, we always had fun hanging with each other. From shake ups to break ups, we all seemed to pull thru them teenage years. Won't ever forget your uncontrollable laughs and giggles, when funny shit happened. Your laughs were contagious as hell!! We would of had more fun for sure, if it wasn't Mrs. Edgitt's power trips at Goddard. Damn that lady for not allowing us Mexicans have some fun. Lol

You and your family, were always welcoming and just awesome people to be around. Whether it was chillin after a cruise on Main, or playing Mortal Kombat in your mom's living room. All of you still put up with us loud kids hanging around. Those were some good times..

My heart hurts for his Boy and the family rn. I pray for their emotional recovery thru this time. Fish will be greatly missed. Keep it poppin Homie..

“ We met when he worked at Alco's...loved his chuck's, sleep, movies at home while laying on the couch, Raiders, sitting quietly while everyone else was loud. Most loyal friend to the circle he kept. So thoughtful of others feelings before his own. Most unselfish man I ever met. I could never forget your love.
