Also surviving Oscar are nieces, Abigail Acosta, Karina Acosta, and Karisma Acosta, all of Roswell, NM; numerous tías, tíos and primos.

God Saw He Was Getting Tired

God saw he was getting tired
and a cure was not to be.

So He put His arms around him and whispered, "Come with Me. "

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away.

Although we loved him dearly,

we could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
he only takes the best.

“ A candle lit for you my friend. Though it's been many years since we last saw each other, your beautiful smile will always be remembered. You were always able to make everyone laugh and smile. Your heart was big and kind. I will always remember you on that light. God has called his angel to heaven to free you from your burdens. Rest in peace friend.

“ 2 my best friend,
Well we're do I begin, with more memories than words can ever say, you were always the best person with the biggest heart. You were not only a best friend, you were a loving son, bother and a great father. Your smiles and laugh could light up a room and make the saddest person happy. And I know I'm being selfish by saying that we need you now, when God needed his angel back more! Moscar I love you brother with all my heart and always will. There will never be a day that I don't reminisce on the memories of all of us hanging out and having fun, 21!!! I will always miss you brother, one day we will be together again, until then, watch over us all... Love you brother
2 Elias, Pilla, Eli and Sorida I wanna say im so sorry for yalls loss, I know if we're takin it this hard it's gotta be 10 times harder for you...
I love yall and thank yall for always helping us out, we were always with Oscar and you guys treated us as family.

“ Every Memory i have of you is of you joking around laughing and making everyone around you laugh. We use to have the best time at my grandma's ranch, i will always remember you as Oscar La Mosca cant believe your gone cousin. So sorry for your loss, Elias, Pilly, Eli, and Sori....Words cant not heal your hurt but with time you will look past it and remember all the good memories. He will always be there watching over you all.

RIP Oscar
