My little sister, always first in line to eat, when mom called us, she was a tomboy, but always a little clumsy, but she had that wild, warm heart of a Garcia, she talked like Tia Julia, plain and simple,... right from the heart. May you rest in place my little sister, know that you were loved.

Patricia was my baby sitter, tutor and confidant, my big Sister... A loving, caring heart in fervent prayer for us, her children and others she touched by spreading the love and the dignity of CHRIST. She will be remembered by many. My prayers are with her Beloved Family. May the Faith and Healing, Strength and Courage of our Heavenly Father be with ALL of Us.

IN CHRIST Jesus our Lord and Savior.
