“ Pat and I became friends about 15 years ago. We hit it off immediately. She was the sweetest, kindest and happiest sweet lady ever. I did her hair and we lived close, so on my daily walks with Brody, we would sometime stop by to say hi. She absolutely adored Brody. Pat was a china painter and beautiful work she did do. She wanted a picture of Brody so she could do one of him, but she never got around to it and was getting pretty feeble as well. Pat had the most radiant smile and cute laugh. She was grateful I didn't get water in her ears or burn her with the curling iron. We had a close bond and when she wasn't so well, I would take Brody to see her in Casa Maria and when she wasn't responding to anyone, I could put Brody on the bed beside her and put her hand on him and she would come alive. She loved to massage him and feel his soft fur. Brody always goes with me to visit the elderly in the senior and nursing homes. I will never forget you Pat and we love you very much, Cheryl Wafful & Brody
