“ Pat was one of my dearest friends. We were neighbors in Davenport, IA. She was like the sister I never had. Our families became quite close. Our children called her and Rod “Auntie Pat and Uncle Rod.” They always wanted to share their new outfits, report cards etc. with them.
Pat and I golfed, laughed, cried and shared many great times together.
Diedra’s, I’m deeply sorry for your loss.
May you rest in peace my dear friend. Love you, Kay
