

Patricia C. Teague

October 26, 1957 - February 6, 2020

PATRICIA TEAGUE
HAS GONE HOME

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Yes, I am fully confident and would rather be at home in the Lord, for we must all stand before Christ to be judged. We each receive whatever we deserve for the good or evil we have done in our bodies.” May my memory be for a blessing.

On October 26, 1957, Patricia was born to Jackie Dean Teague Sr. and Nancy Jean Smith in Pampa, TX. She was raised in Dexter, NM, and was very proud of her town. Patricia attended Dexter High School, where she played volleyball and basketball, and after graduating, she attended New Mexico State University College. While in college, Patricia continued her athletic activities and also studied social services, secondary education, and physics. She raised two very appreciative boys in Albuquerque, NM, and worked full time. Patricia then returned to Roswell/Dexter to care for her mother and father. She worked full time as an Income Support Specialist Supervisor with the State of New Mexico while still giving wonderful amounts of time and care to her family. Patricia took great pride in her work and the fact that she was helping people during their time of need. She found her employment and family to be very fulfilling. After retirement, Patricia began to offer assistance to people through Teague Professional Services helping people complete proper resumes and understanding medical/legal documents, helping others gave her so much joy. Patricia's love was as constant as it was unconditional. Her spirit and boundless compassion made the world a better place, enriching and encouraging all that knew her.

PRECEDED: Preceded Patricia in death were her parents, Jackie Dean Sr. and Nancy Jean Smith.

1 Corinthians 15:54-58 (KJV)

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Revelation 21:4 (KJV)

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

“ I had a pot luck at my work at peterbilt. I had no clue what to make but at 10 o'clock at night I messaged her and she patiently and strategically walked me through the family secret recipe for green chile stew. She was so excited to hear from me the next day that it was a hit and i had zero left overs. Thats just one of a thousand memories I have with my auntie pat. Ill miss her and love you matt and ryan- more than words can express. Im thinking of you guys and sending my love.

“ Patty was a mother to me. She gave the best advice to a teenage girl. She always opened her doors for me and had the best hugs to give. Matt and Ryan, my heart breaks for the loss of mom. Please keep your heads up. She fought and won so many battles! She was courageous and a strong woman. Love to you both. ❤️ Kentrena
