Williams. Siblings, Curtis Freeman, Renee Hubbard, Nancy Freeman, Don Freeman, Beverly Lewis. His only remaining Aunt, Homa Gordan and her family. And numerous nieces and nephews. Pets: Agnes, Jeffery, Julia and Clara.

Paul was preceded in death by his parents, his son Paul A. Freeman and grandson John Williams his siblings, Virginia Burns, Roscoe Freeman Jr. Bobby Freeman, Melba J. Boyd. Nieces, Ruby D. Austin and Gina Freeman.

Paul's love of art; lead him to paint Jesus Christ Crucifixion on the cross and Jesus ascension to heaven for one of the local churches. He coached little League baseball for many years and as the youth that he coached grew and became adults he remembered who they were. Paul was a wood carver and received first place from the New Mexico State Fair for his carving of Jesus on the cross. He truly loved God and Jesus.

Paul's favorite pastime was fishing, hunting, bowling, movies and watching his favorite shows on T.V. He loved gardening, painting, drawing, playing his guitar and bongo drums, carving and collecting. He was an excellent tailor. The Broncos was his favorite team. He loved golf and watching Tiger Woods.

We would like to thank friends and family that have been helpful during his passing, thank you for the prayers and support. A special thank you to our nephew Daniel Freeman for his love and support. Thank you to Dr. Siavash Karimian for his care and compassion.

Pallbearers: Don Freeman, Daniel Freeman, Bobby J. Freeman, Scott Austin, Demitri Davis, Manuel Gallegos.

Rest Now!

No more sorrow will be yours,
No more burdens will you bear,
No more heartaches will you endure,
Weighted down with endless care,
Rest now!

While here on earth you did you best,
A friend to all you tried to be.
This day you have no regrets.
This day from sorrow you are free.
Rest, now!

No more will you fret and worry
About what a day may bring,
You have gone to that city,
where God's Holy Angels sing,
Rest Now!

“ I will miss you uncle Paul. You were so laid back and easy to talk to. I know that Billy would talk your ear off, but you just sat back and listen! If you see my dad when you get to heaven please tell him how much I miss him. Love you very much.
