Safely Home I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illuminated Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still: Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth— You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

“ Another year gone by, to mark the day God called you home. Oh how we miss you Grandma. If only we could have you one more day. If only we could go back to our childhood days when you taught us the best things in life. I remember you today and always grandma and I miss you so much :(

“ Miss you so much Grandma. Not a day goes by that you don't cross my mind. I know you lived a long life but I just wish I could have had just a little while longer with you - so my kids could have the same childhood that you gave us as grandkids. Miss you, miss our camping trips, our family gatherings and your Sunday dinners. Miss it all terribly.

“ It doesn't seem like long ago, you walked this Earth with us. Life goes on, time goes by & memories begin fade, but your spirit stays alive. I don't want to forget the yesterdays or forget the times we shared. I long for the days of my childhood when life seemed so simple. I miss your smile, your laugh, the smell of your perfume on your way to church. Your journey is not over, it's only just began, may your journey along the path God laid for you be an everlasting moment in paradise. I miss you terribly, Grandma. I think of you everyday. I wish my kids got to experience the same childhood as mine, the one you ensured was full of imagination, exploring and laughter and there was no time to be sad. As i trek along my road of distress, walk with me Grandma, and at my weakest moments, please don't let me give up.

“ Sometimes I still think I will get a phone call from you. I wonder if I will walk in and see you watching wheel of fortune. I still don't understand some days how this all came about..... Miss you so much Grandma, just wish you were here. 4 years ago today you were there at my wedding and I have great memories of that day when you and Tia Patty were still with us. Love ya and miss ya unconditionally.

“ Not a day goes by that I don't think of you or miss you. You're the first thing on my mind when I wake up and the last thought before I go to bed. Although I wish every day you were still here with us, I know deep down you are now smiling down on us and are no longer in pain. I'm so thankful we had an amazing grandmother who loved all of us unconditionally. So many memories we have to remember and cherish forever. I love you so much Grandma.

“ Wanda and family, Aida and family, Emilio and family, and Danny and family. I want to offer my most sincere condolences on the loss of your dear beautiful mother. I don't know if you all remember as teenagers when I used to spend the night at your house but I do. Your Mom was always so kind and gentle and made me feel welcome. As an adult I would run into her and your dad in town and she always took the time to say hello. She will be missed by so many. Words cannot heal the pain of losing someone so dear. May God give you the strength to overcome the pain. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
