

Peggy Clark

August 4, 1933 - August 9, 2012

Former Texas resident Peggy Clark, 79, died Thursday, August 9, 2012 in Roswell, New Mexico. A viewing will be held 4:00 P.M. Saturday, August 11, 2012 at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home.

Ms. Clark was born August 4, 1933, in Collin County, Texas, to Kate Lamb and Frank Durkee Sr. Peggy could accomplish anything she set her mind to. She worked over 40 years in the Quality Assurance field and worked for both Texas Instruments and Halliburton Oil.

Ms. Clark spent more than 75 years in Texas before moving to Roswell, NM to live with her youngest daughter and husband. Her interests included family, antiques, gardening, women's rights, writing and telling stories and she made the best fried chicken ever.

Peggy is survived by her sister, Sharon Heuss of Texas; daughters, Cindy Heald of Texas and Deborah Kearney of New Mexico also by 3 grandsons and 8 great grand children. Condolences may be sent to the Kearney's at 1000 E. College Blvd. Lot 10, Roswell, NM 88201

“ No words can describe how I love you, Mom, and because of you, I am who I am today. I appreciate how beautifully my sister, Debi, captured Mother's essence in words and the loving way she cared for Mother during the last few years of her life. I am honored to be related to you both. Thank you Mom for everything! May you be blessed by God and touched by angels forever and ever...Cindy

“ She was a tough old broad and I will miss her. She went to God with love in her heart. She will be missed by all the many fiends here in Texas.
