At this time the services for Penney have not been scheduled but will be announced by her family when they are.

Penney was born on July 18, 1962, she was adopted by William and Peggie Goodall just a few days later. Penney attended school in Roswell, New Mexico before going to college and obtaining her master's degree in education. Penney pursued a lifelong career as a schoolteacher for the Roswell Independent School District. Penney married her husband Sammy Cardona, and they welcomed one son, Kristopher Cardona, into the world. Penney is preceded in death by her husband Sammy, and her son Kristopher; they are reunited in heaven now. After the loss of her husband and son, Penney found love again with her boyfriend, Randy; he healed her heart after a tremendous loss, and made her smile once again.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Penney are her brother, William R. Goodall; nieces, Libby Goodall, Teresa Smith, Ruthie Whitt, and Sandy Whitt; nephews, Brad Goodall, Jeff Smith, and John Whitt; and boyfriend, Randy Wiebenga.

Penney is preceded in death by her husband Sammy Cardona; son, Kristopher Cardona; parents, William and Peggie Goodall; sister-in-law, Wilma F. Goodall; and her sweet puppy dog, Doodles, whom she loved so very much.

Penney had a love for many things in her life, and she loved fully. She loved teaching children in the local schools, her family, fishing, her dog Doodles who she is now reunited with, she loved to shop and would NEVER pass up a good sale, and coloring in all sorts of coloring books with her felt tip markers. These are some of the things that made her the happiest.

Penney's tribute was written in honor by her brother, William.

“ Penney, We were co-workers, great friends, introduced you to my brother, Sammy Cardona and became your Maid of Honor and your Sister-in-law. Enjoyed getting to know Kristopher, my Nephew. So happy you found love and joy again after your devastating loss. I pray for your soul and hope you reunite with your loved ones once again. We shall see each other again in a blink of an eye. “Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.”

“ Penney and I have been friends forever it seems. We went to School together. We would go "cruising main" stop and get an ice cream and sit at the wool bowl and eat it and laugh at Lord only knows. 💔 I hope your reunion was wonderful! Say hello to everyone and I'll see you again.
