Also to have preceded her in death were her siblings: Lonnie Peppen, Lucy Herrera, Erminda (Minda, 'Minnie) Hollis, Icelia (Sheila) Gonzales, Aurora Gonzales, Henerietta Martinez, Seniada Del Llano and Desiderio Gonzales; as well as her son-in-law and friend Clovis J. Torres.

She is survived by her sister, Isabel (Cici) Ortega; and her husband, Steve Ortega; her children:

also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Penny held various positions, throughout her life, mostly dealing with electrical wiring of military aircraft and submarines, but she loved more than anything serving her Lord as Church Administrator of Bethel Baptist Church. She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church for 62 years serving in various capacities and positions and loved singing in the Church Choir and with the ladies singing group, Grateful Heart.
She was very creative and excelled at everything she did including silversmithing, painting, counted cross-stitch, plastic canvas, sewing, knitting and Penny had a unique gift of touching the hearts of everyone she came across in her life, providing a love and kindness granted to her through her faith and servitude to God.
She provided comfort to both family, friends and even acquaintances when she knew it was needed.
She loved to laugh,
a contagious laugh that could make even the most sorrowful heart smile,
creating an environment of peace and love wherever she went.

We would like to acknowledge and thank Dr. Richard Pinon, Jr, Dr. Hamid Feroze, Home
Healthcare Nurse Veronica, Yvonn and Elvira of Enhabit Hospice, Rolando
