

Phyllis Fuller

March 29, 2016

Phyllis Fuller, 69, passed away March 29, 2016. She was born July 15, 1946, to Eual and Vernie Nelson in Roswell, NM.

As a member of West Alameda Church of Christ, Phyllis loved going to church and participating in church functions. She enjoyed shopping, traveling and vacations. One of her greatest joys was spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Preceding Phyllis in death were parents: Eual and Vernie Nelson and one sister, Betty Jean Smith.

Those left to cherish Phyllis' memories are her husband of 50 years, Cordis Ray Fuller; daughters: Teri Tricarico and husband, Chris, and Sheri Fuller. Additionally surviving Phyllis are 4 grandchildren: Robert Boggs, Billy Boggs (Scooter), Alishya Webb and Austin Webb.

A memorial service will be Friday, April 8, 2016, 4:00 PM at West Alameda Church of Christ.

“ *So sorry to hear about Phyllis , she was a precious lady, we lived beside each other when the twins and My son Darin were babies, we had some fun times together , even though we both moved we occasionally ran into each other shopping and enjoyed a good laugh and shared news of our kids and grandkids, prayers of comfort to Ray and the girls.
