Pitak was born in Bangkok, Thailand, Asia, on January 6, 1984. His parents were James and Chaleeporn "Tuk" Hollmann. He was raised in the Catholic Faith.

He graduated as a salutatorian with honors from Hagerman High School. When he found out he was going to give a speech as valedictorian he purposely flunked a test so he wouldn't have to give a speech. Then Pitak found out as a salutatorian he still had to give a speech anyway, which he did. He was on State Champion football and track teams and was the State Champion Class A pole vaulter two years in a row. Pitak wanted to further his education and attended classes at Eastern New Mexico University-Roswell.

Pitak was in the National Honor Society and was listed in "Who's Who Among American High School Students" He also made the Class A State All-Star football team. Pitak was also involved in 4H and enjoyed showing sheep and goats. He loved riding horses growing up.

Pitak was a great chef who loved cooking. He was a very friendly, caring, and giving person who loved his family, especially his girls. Everything Pitak did, he always did with a smile on his face. He enjoyed being around his friends, especially playing poker and telling them jokes. Pitak's sarcasm, infectious laughter, and wise cracks will be dearly missed.
